The Bearcat — 1967

Henrietta High School

Scores of Memories

One glance at a scoreboard can not tell the entire story of the game — the Spirit — the Teamwork — the Excitement — just as our yearbook can not present the complete picture of the year. The 1967 BEARCAT can only capture for you the highpoints; whereas, the memories within you — the Joy and Tears, Victory and Defeat — must fill in the pages that combine to form the year we call the best.

We dedicate our yearbook to a man who is himself dedicated . . .

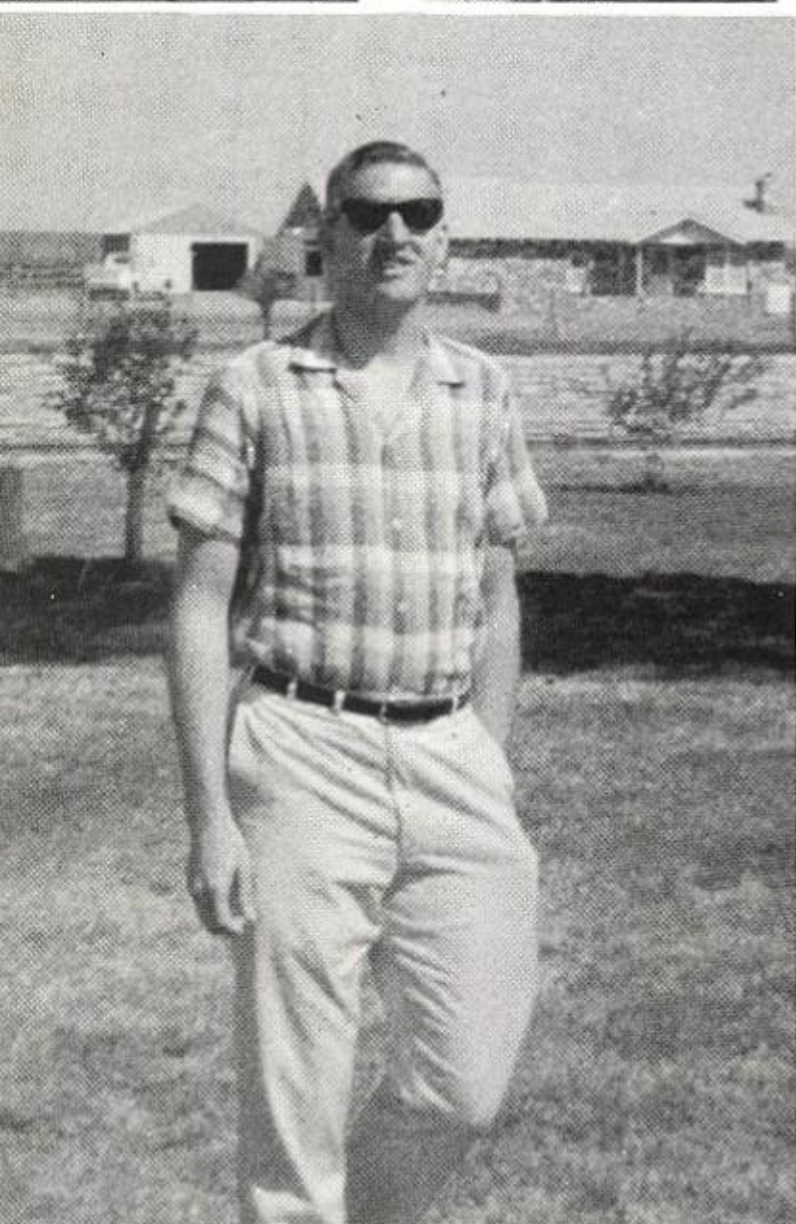

*Best wishes, Ken,
to a fine student.
Jim Blessingame*

Because he has worked for and with us, and given generously of his time and wisdom. Words are but a poor substitute with which to express our sincere respect and appreciation for the services performed by this untiring and patient man, who has put first above all things, the school and the people within it.

H. H. S. is proud of the challenges and conquers made by you and your pupils in the field of science. Your vast knowledge and words of encouragement holds every student's highest admiration.

It is with honor the Annual Staff dedicates the 1967 Bearcat to a distinguished friend, Mr. Jim Blessingame.

Pitiful!

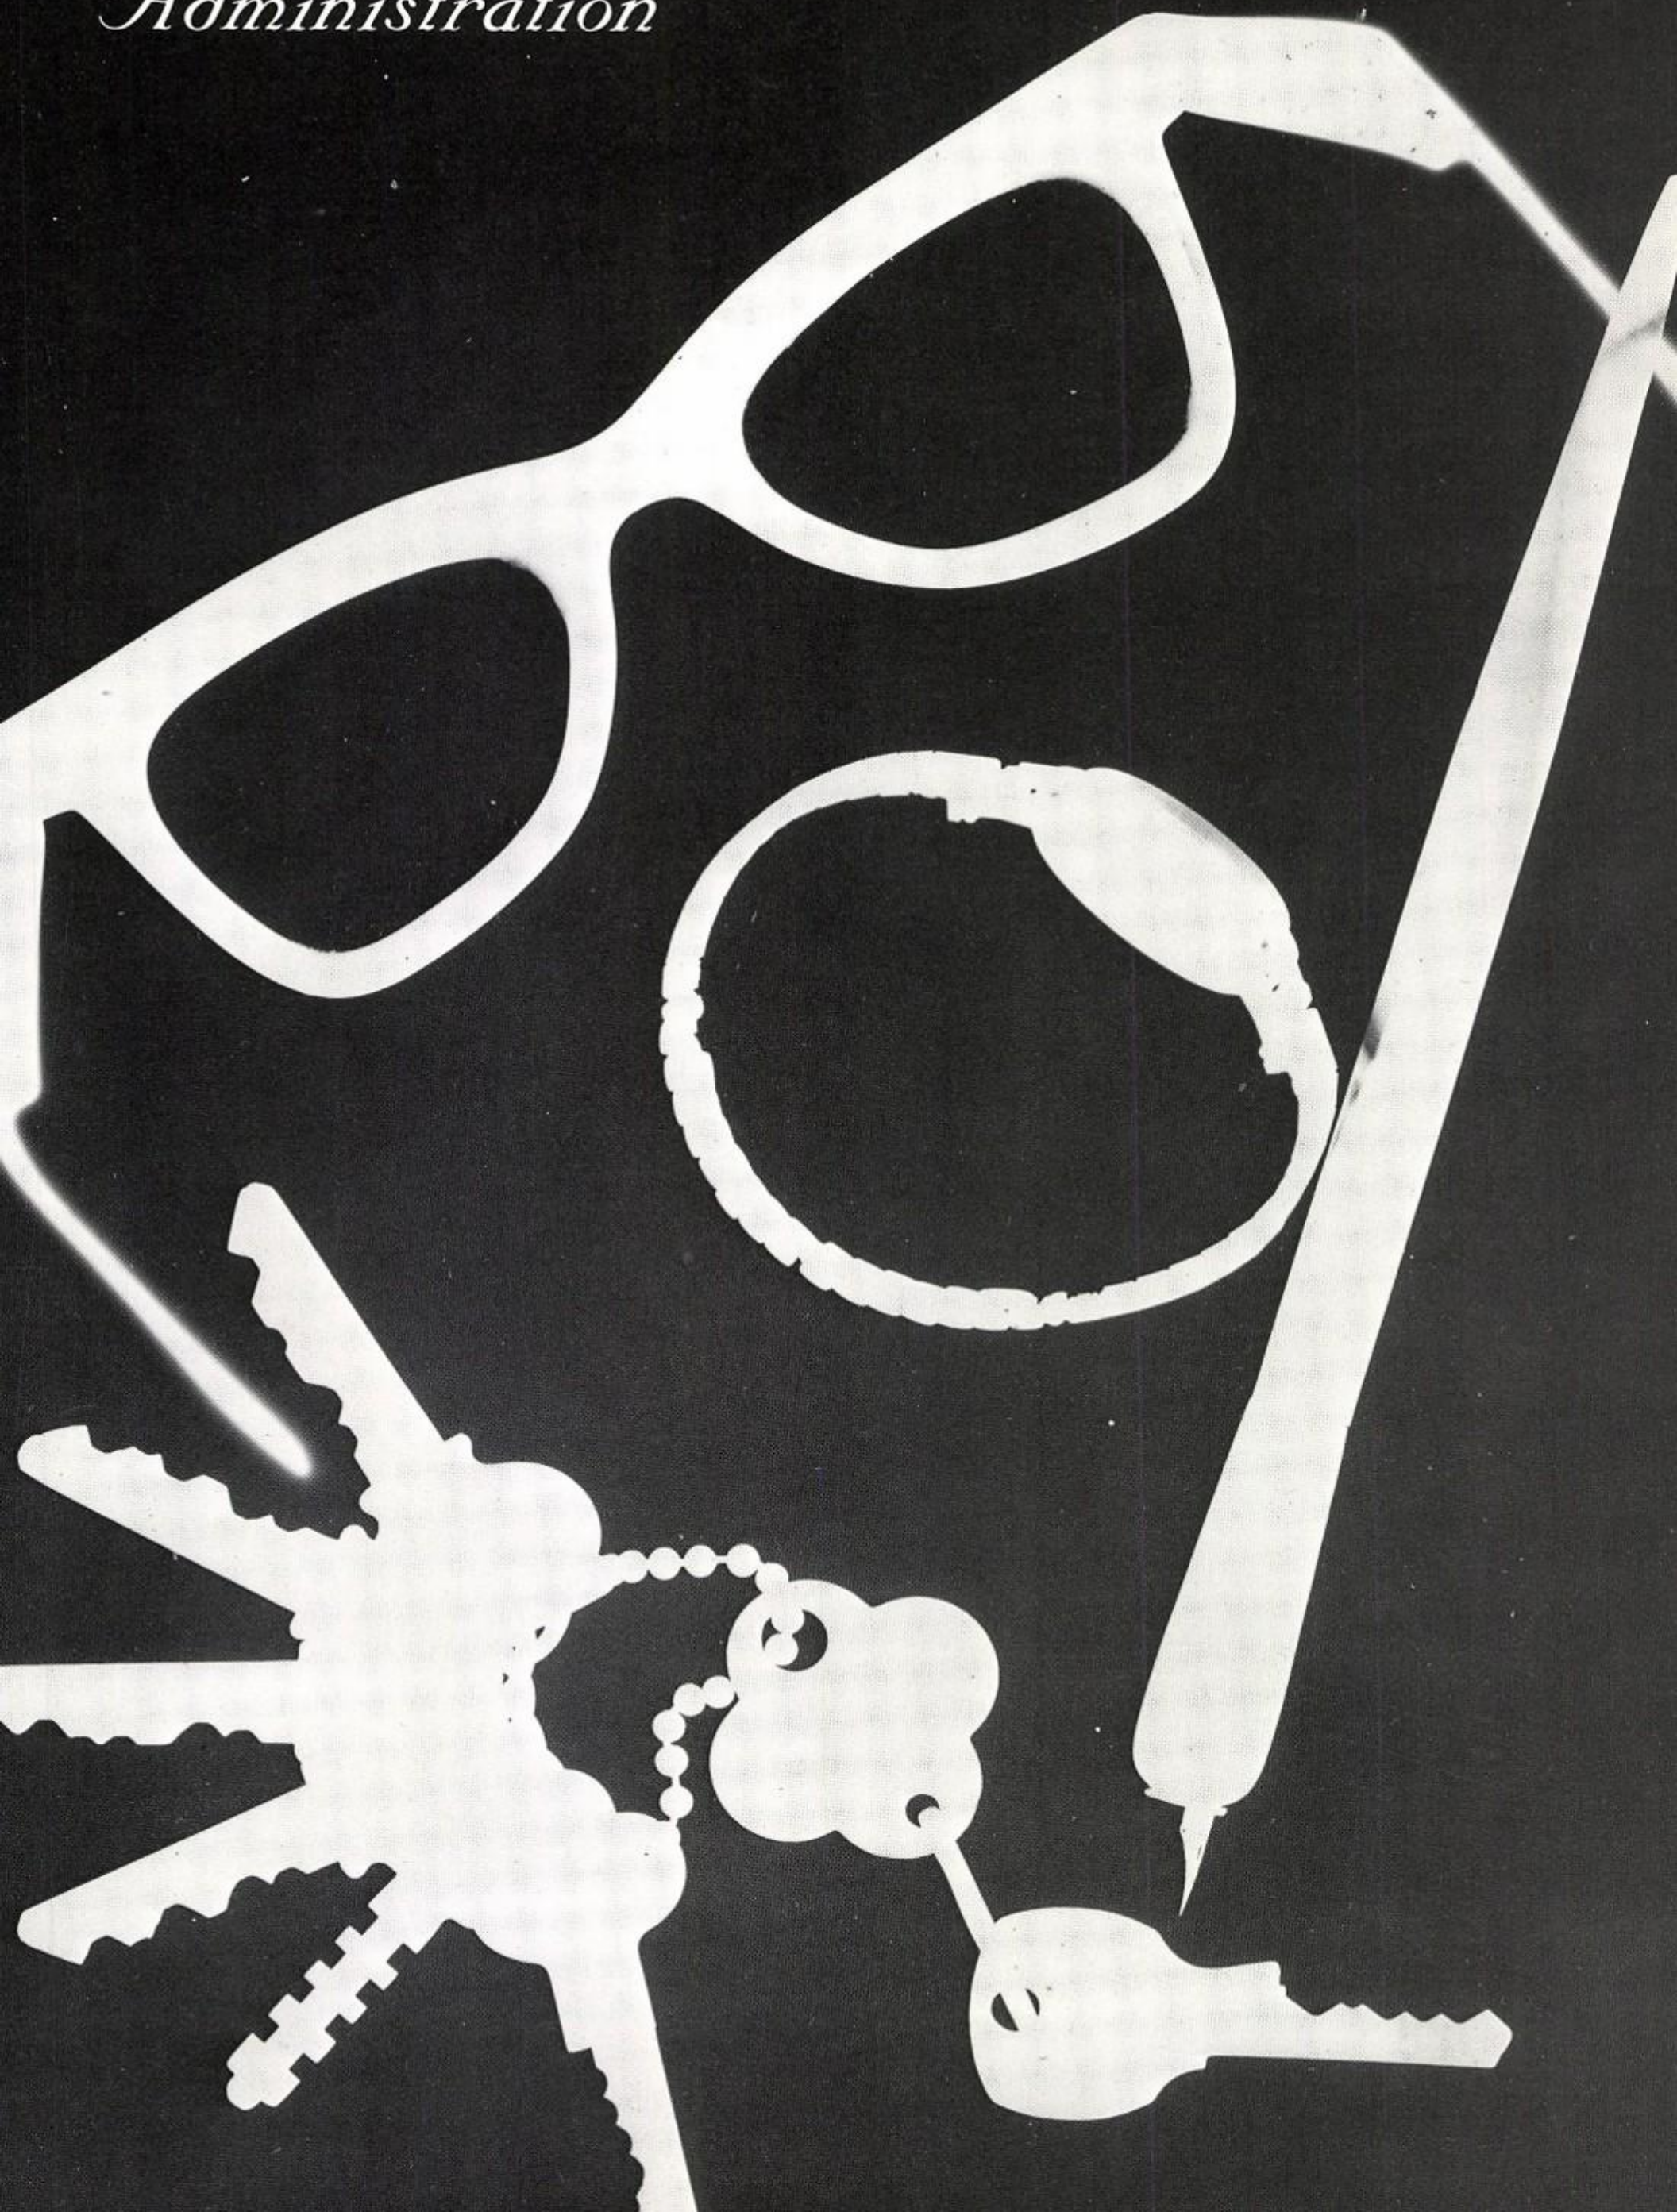

Good Heavens!

For all practical purposes —

they often see ideas without being affected by established standards of acceptability. Since they don't know that some things "can't be done" or "shouldn't be done" they go ahead and try. This doesn't mean that they are always right, far from it. But it does mean that each generation attempts new things.

In a sense, youth renews the world, and age keeps it going. Without young vitality, life might become dry and dull. Without adult steadiness, life might fly apart from the impact of new and unproven ideas.

To put things in proper perspective, one must take the long view. Each generation of young people adopts its special way of doing things, and each generation of

And I became a part of

on its own, long ways traveled since we had and it seems all though about out for another year didn't want to let go of this wonderful place
I'll be there

that Bearcat Spirit!

. . . but the Memories linger on

I thought of things now pass and gone.
I thought of games I'd lost and won,
I thought of all the things I'd done.
I thought of those I loved and cared,
Of times we'd had, of things we'd shared.
And in a flash I came to see How much the past had meant to me.
The way was rough; I knew the score,
It never ends . . . there's always more.

- ne -

Will then it be a long way we have traveled since we first started and it seems as though we are about out for another year the only problem I won't be able to finish with this wonderful plan

Thank you for all your help and patience. Don't forget me, maybe have half a loaf "I shall" be back and
